9. In your opinion, what would be the hardest thing about being an elder? What would make it worth being an elder?

- 10. What, specifically, can we/you do to be an encouragement this week to our elders? And let's not just talk theory here, let's actually put some of the ideas into action this week.

11. Have you been praying for those who might step forward to serve as an elder? Have you talked to them about serving?

- 12. Last week we talked about "Growing Through Service" and how we could meet the needs of someone in our community, both individually and as a group. Does anyone have a story to share of how you were able to reach out to at least one neighbor—what you did how it felt and what you learned?

WHAT WE OWE OUR ELDERS
Hebrews 13:7-25

Life Groups aren't supposed to be about having another opportunity for more in-depth Bible Study (though occasionally that's helpful). Instead, Life Groups are about accountability, sharing, building relationships and making application of scripture to our lives.
